DECLARATION OF NON-RESPONSIBILITY
Automated Traffic Safety Program

This Declaration may not be used by employers/principals to transfer responsibility to their employees/agents. As a matter of law, a vehicle registered to an employer/principal that is driven by an employee remains in the "care, custody, and control" of the employer/agent and thus, the employer/principal is responsible for the payment of the penalty. If the Notice of Infraction Number is unclear or incorrect or the documentation or information required below is missing, a contested hearing will automatically be scheduled and the registered owners listed will be required to appear in court.

- By law, the registered owner(s) are responsible for the violation alleged on the Notice of Infraction unless the registered owner(s) demonstrate that the vehicle identified on the notice was stolen, sold or in the care, custody or control of another person (see below). RCW 4.63.170
